Review of Financial Reports

Redevelopment Commission Treasurer Rhodes commented that information regarding the TIF District settlement has been received. The settlements are significantly different than the estimate. As information is received from the county, a detailed review of the parcel data will be necessary in order to revise the estimated revenues for each district. President Oates noted that after the review has been completed, the Commission will consider any necessary revisions to the 2011 spending plan so that the Commission's work can continue without incurring any debt to the city.

Resolution RC 2011-2

Commissioner Sorensen motioned to approve Resolution RC 2011-2 A Resolution of the West Lafayette Redevelopment Commission Concerning the Payment of Capital Expenditures. Commissioner Curtis seconded. President Oates explained the background for the resolution which assists in the payment for capital equipment and vehicle expenditures. These items directly benefit the TIF District (Levee/Village) from which the expenditures are being paid and are part of the 2011 Spending Plan. Resolution RC 2011-2 gives the Commission the authority to make the expenditures on behalf of the City of West Lafayette.

The roll call vote:

Aye: Curtis, Grama, Gray, Oates, Sorensen

The motion passed 5-0.
